

New York Breeders Meet in Louisville

Members of the New York Jersey Cattle Club met for their state annual meeting at a new time and new location this year, gathering on November 10, 2019, at the Kentucky Fair and Exposition Center in Louisville, Ky. For the sake of efficiency and attendance, the meeting was held in conjunction with festivities of the All American Jersey events.

Primarily business in nature, approved financial reports, discussed the New York Spring Carousel Show, elected officers and nominated members for national Jersey awards. They also wrapped up details from the Annual Meetings of the American Jersey Cattle Association and National All-Jersey Inc., hosted by the state this past summer in Saratoga Springs.

Officers elected to serve the New York Jersey Cattle Club were Sandra (Ferry) Scott, Johnstown, president, and Bethany Beiersdorf, Freedom, vice president. Kathryn Bosley, Malone, and Meghan Moody Potter, Hamden, will serve as co-secretaries and Kate Bedient, Canandigua, and Alan Danforth, Cobleskill, will serve as co-treasurers.
